St. Wendelin

Dedication . . .

We, the graduating class of 1955, wish solemnly and humbly to dedicate this twenty-seventh volume of the Foslin to the beloved patron of our school and parish, St. Wendelin.

This dedication assumes especial import, for this year has marked the arrival in our parish of the first English translation of the life of St. Wendelin as well as the acquisition of a first-class relic of the Saint.

St. Wendelin, often pictured as a shepherd, was, in truth, of royal blood being a son of a King and Queen of Scotland. Wendelin, however, chose the frugal life of a monk and shepherd to the kingly existence for which he was destined.

For this example of love of God over material things and the protection which you have vouchsafed to bestow on us in the past and, we humbly pray, in the future, we place this book of memories in your saintly hands hoping that those same hands will guide our class as they did the sheep on the German hillsides and bring us safely to our eternal reward.

Hard work on the school paper, the Wendelette, and a busy year on the Foslin were had by the boys on the staff. Robert DeGalan, John Miller, Dale Kieffer, Edward Sullivan, Donald Stone, Donald Filiater, Thomas Abowd, and Dennis Kitchen.

Realizing it is their duty as the editorial staff to instruct their readers in various school happenings and activities, the journalism class works hard to learn and practice the principles of good writing.

Responsibility of financing and publishing both the Wendelette and Foslin is placed on this class.

The staff is composed of fifteen members of the senior class with Thomas Abowd and Rosanne Welly acting as co-editors.

Activities . . .

"That action is best which procures the greatest happiness for the greatest numbers."

While the prime purpose for attending St. Wendelin High School is to develop spiritually and mentally, these are not the only aims of Catholic education. Developing personality by working with others in organizations, and creating in students social poise, through CYO and other school sponsored activities are also in the plan of St. Wendelin High School.

The opportunities for extracurricular and co-curricular activity open to the student are sufficient to assure a rounded program while not interfering with study.

"All the world's a stage . . ."

This year, the Dramatics Club was introduced to the students under the capable direction of Mr. James Ankenbrandt. Sixty-five members have worked enthusiastically to make the group a success.

A few weeks before Christmas vacation commenced, committees were appointed and plans for a Christmas pageant were under way. "Why the Chimes Rang," a short playlet with a cast of sixteen was presented to the student body and public in two performances on Dec. 22.

Various assemblies and skits were also sponsored by the Club throughout the year.

"They profit most who serve best"

Under the guidance of Sister Mary Valeda, the freshman girls have revived the Blessed Virgin Sodality. The revival of the sodality is a Marian Year project. The meetings are held in the home economics room each Friday morning during the third period. These girls are divided into committees, namely Eucharistic, Our Lady's, Apostolic, and Publicity.

St. Wendelin High School is fortunate to have two organists, Teresa Peluso and Nancy Witmore. These girls alternate playing the organ for daily Mass and Friday's Benediction.

Faithful freshman sacristans! These are the girls who keep the sanctuary of the chapel neat and tidy. Each day they lay out Father Hunter's vestments for the morning's Mass and on Fridays they prepare chapel for Benediction.

Organists: Teresa Peluso and Nancy Witmore

Sacristans: Linda Radkey, Janet Karcher, Joyce Reiter, Janice Barry, Mary Lonsway, Joan Forristell, Shirley Williams, Mary Ann Welly, Linda Cervantes, Joyce Elchert, Janet Keiffer, and Deloris Vargas.

"Spiritual, Cultural, Social."

With a membership of over 200, the Catholic Youth Organization forms an integral part of the extracurricular activity of St. Wendelin High School.

CYO offers a well-balanced program to its membership with its spiritual, cultural, social, and athletic activities.

While CYO is still relatively new at St. Wendelin, its popularity is gaining each year as is witnessed by the increase in both enthusiasm and number of its members.

St. Wendelin's CYO is affiliated with both the deanery and the Diocese, meetings being held once a month.

A strike every time was the aim of the CYO bowling teams with these senior captains in charge. Sitting: John Miller, Delores Pocs, Rosanne Welly, Ruth Gillig, Robert Woodside. Standing: Donald Lonsway, Eugene Brickner, Ronald Blaser, Donald Filliater, and James Wolfelt.

"The highest graces of music flow from the feelings of the heart."

In the spring of 1952, it was announced that St. Wendelin would organize its first band, under the direction of Ralph Lupidi.

At first there were only thirty members, but the keen interest of the student body resulted in a rapidly increased membership. Their debut was made at a successful Spring Music Concert in 1953.

By the fall of 1954, Mr. Lupidi was proud to show off a colorful sixty-three piece band, with three or four alternates, seven majorettes, two flag bearers, and a new show at every football game, at home and away. Holiday programs, graduation exercises, and pep rallies, have been enlivened by the new band, giving everyone the feeling of higher school spirit.

The desire to sing is also satisfied at St. Wendelin. Mr. Lupidi directs both the girls glee and the mixed chorus which present an annual spring concert.

"Silence and solitude, the soul's best friends."

Classes were discontinued for three days and time was entirely devoted to prayer and reflection, on the part of the students, as the annual retreat was conducted by the Rev. James E. McGowan, pastor of St. Anthony's, Milan, Ohio.

During these days, November 22, 23, and 24, special sessions were held at which time Father McGowan spoke to the students on such subjects as our duty as sons and daughters, the sacraments, and virtues and vices.

Father left a little "prayer for light" with the students, to be recited often, "Oh my God, let me know myself as you know me in order that I may be as You want me to be."

THE REV.

Retreat Master

In honor of Pope Pius XII's 79th birthday the week of February 28 to March 4 was set aside as Papal week in the school. About to serve the birthday cake are Harold Brickner, Eugene Brickner, Father Hunter, James Park, and John Lamberjack. The boys are the sophomore, senior, junior, and freshman presidents, respectively.

The Results . . .

Playing in the Fostoria Preview the Mohawks were handed their first loss 6-0 by Risingsun.

St. Wendelin's gridders were trampled Sunday, Sept. 19, by a powerful Sandusky St. Mary's there, 52-0.

St. Joe, Fremont, toppled the Mohawks in a fourth quarter rally, rolling up 21 points to beat the Black and Gold 27-0 at Harmon Field, Fremont, Sunday, Sept. 26.

St. Wendelin Mohawks dropped their first home game of the season to Genoa, Oct. 1, to the tune of 35-0.

North Baltimore handed the Mohawks their fourth defeat, by a score of 34-0, there, Oct. 8. The Tigers, who outweighed the Mohawks, just could not be stopped.

Traveling to meet their old rival, St. Paul Norwalk, October 22, the Mohawks scored their first touchdown of the season, but lost 20-6. The loss ended a four year domination of the Flyers by St. Wendelin.

The Black and Gold put up a gallant battle against Elyria Catholic, October 29, in Memorial Stadium, but were beaten for the sixth time in succession, this time by a score of 27-12.

Holland's Blue Devils defeated the Mohawks, Saturday night, November 6, in Memorial Stadium, to the tune of 19-0.

Suffering their eighth loss in the final game of the 1954 season, the SWHS squad bowed to the Willard Railroaders, in Memorial Stadium, Nov. 12, by a score of 35-0.

The Rev. Robert Ruffing, St. Wendelin pastor, speaks at the annual SWHS athletic banquet, held November 12. Six seniors completed their grid careers with the dinner given by the mothers honoring them and the other Mohawk athletes. Other speakers for the event were Father Hunter, Dr. T. P. Lehman and Coaches Kenneth Herman and Richard Eisenhower.

"There are some defeats more triumphant than victories."

Dr. R. S. Markey lent his services for the second year, patching and mending the footballer's bruises.

Football . . .

Senior Gene Reinhart, 22, and Dave Kelbley, 7, a junior, were chosen by the football team to lead the Mohawks of '54. Gene a two-year letterman and Dave who quarterbacked the team last year as a sophomore were both fine choices as they were leaders in class as well as on the gridiron.

Jim Park, Tribe's fullback, streaks for a long gain in the Willard fray as blockers mow down the Railroaders.

The Saints managing crew was headed by Don Stone, an old hand, having four years' experience, assisted by Ronnie Smith and Mike Huth. This trio handled all athletic chores for the grid and cage teams.

Highlights . . .

During the annual preview games, Mr. Porter, president of the Athletic Boosters, crowned Shirley Young, preview queen. Along with the honor she also received a wrist watch. Her attendants, Teresa Peluso of St. Wendelin, and Ruthanne Reiter of Fostoria High, were awarded two pieces of luggage, and a complete wardrobe, respectively.

Varsity Cagers of 1954-55

Ready for action are Glenn Ritter, Don Lonsway, Gene Reinhart, Dave Kelbley, Jim Blaser, Ronald Luman, John Heinsman, and Coach Dick Eisenhower. Jerry Reiter was missing when picture was taken.

Papooses . . .

Forseeing the varsity in coming seasons, Coach Herman concentrated on building material from his reserve charges. Playing all his boys, only one game was won, however, much experience was gained for future use.

Season . . .

Risingsun: 51-70

St. Wendelin's Mohawks dropped their opening game of the 1954-55 cage schedule Nov. 30, at Risingsun, 70-51. The high-point men for the Mohawks were John Heinsman with 26 and Gene Reinhart with 18.

Genoa: 58-63

Genoa's Comets edged St. Wendelin in a close game, 63-58, Dec. 10, in the Genoa high school gym. The two evenly matched teams played a fast ball game, with Gene Reinhart and John Heinsman setting the pace for SWHS with 17 points apiece.

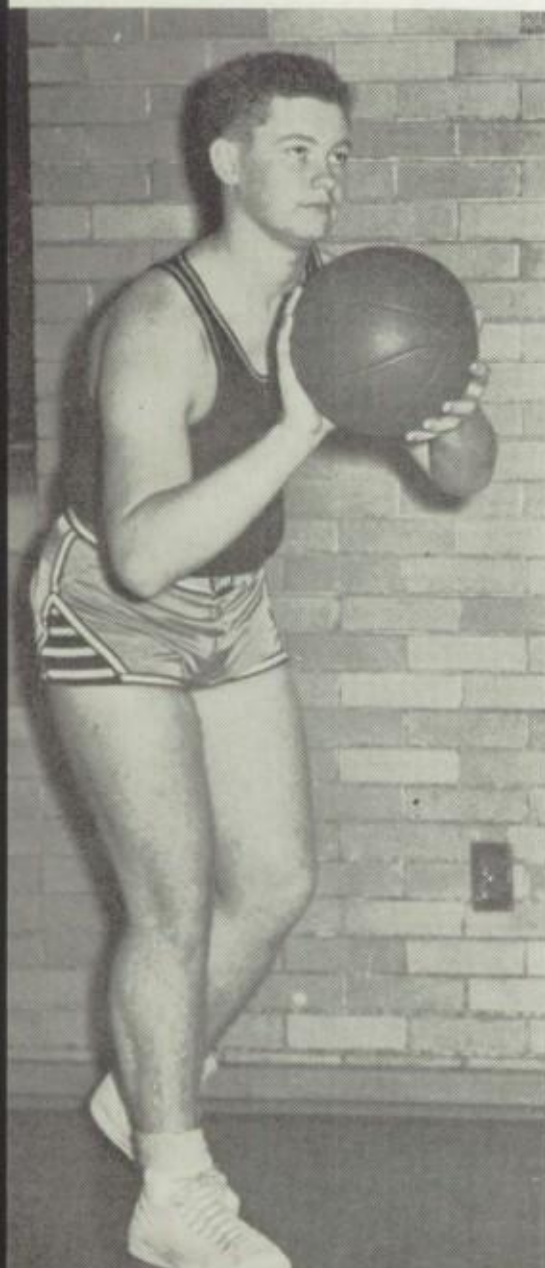

Captain John Heinsman confers with officials and Norwalk St. Paul captain, Simon, just before the game. Johnny was the squad's unanimous choice to lead the Mohawks.

Dave Kelbley

Ron Luman

Sandusky St. Mary: 44-56

After fighting a tough battle, the Mohawks were defeated by the Panthers, Dec. 12. Gene Reinhart and Dave Kelbley were tied in the scoring with 14 points, followed by John Heinsman with 10.

Marion St. Mary: 45-75

The Black and Gold dropped the fourth game of the season to a fast and powerful Marion squad Dec. 14. High point man for the Ikemen was Heinsman with 20 points.

Fremont St. Joe: 49-51

Playing one of their best games of the season Dec. 19 the tribe was leading with just a few seconds left. Foos of Fremont, however, broke in for a driving layup to win the game for the Streaks and stun the whole gymnasium.

Jackson Liberty: 51-38

Driven on by an insatiable thirst for victory the Countyliners met Jackson Liberty Dec. 21. The squad teamworked their way to their first win of the season with three players hitting double figures in the scoring column.

Attica: 63-59

The St. Wendelin Mohawks won their second ball game as they overcame a strong Attica team in the annual Basketball Carnival held at Fostoria High. In the closing minutes the score was tied but Heinsman and Blaser pulled the squad out of the fire by sinking a jump shot and 2 foul shots respectively.

Cygnnet: 63-73

The Ikemen's win streak was suddenly halted by the Zippers, Jan. 4 in a close affair that saw a 40-38 halftime score. In the second half Cygnnet widened its gap and went on to win.

North Baltimore: 42-81

Before the largest home crowd of the season, the Mohawks savagely fought back against the unbeaten Tigers of North Baltimore. Managing to stay fairly close the first half the Black and Gold had nothing left for the second as the Tigers rolled easily to victory.

Don Lonsway

Jim Blaser

Glenn Ritter

Gibsonburg: 45-68

A tight defense on the part of the Gibsonburg Golden Bears spelled defeat for the Saints January 14 on their own court. St. Wendelin, threatening in the first half faded in the third quarter to fall to defeat.

Fremont St. Joe: 54-52

The Mohawks traveled to Fremont January 16 with one thing in mind, a victory, which they got 54-52 at the expense of the Streaks of St. Joseph. It was teamwork and fast ball handling that gave the Saints their third victory of the season.

Hopewell Loudon: 58-67

Traveling to Bascom to meet the highly favored Hopewell Loudon Chieftains the Saints put up a real battle but still came out on the short end of a 67-58 score.

Norwalk St. Paul: 46-41

St. Wendelin's Mohawks found the elusive victory combination once again January 23, as they chalked up win number four downing the Flyers of Norwalk St. Paul.

Clyde: 58-54

Led by their captain John Heinsman, the Mohawks grabbed their fifth victory of the season at Clyde, January 28, 58-54. Although they were out-scored from the field the Saint's accuracy at the foul line meant the difference.

Norwalk St. Paul: 53-48

The Mohawks boosted their winning streak to three and the total wins to six by beating off a determined St. Paul five, on the home court Sunday, February 6. All through the game the Mohawk quintet used their best weapon, the foul shot, to help keep them in the game.

Rossford: 56-45

The Saints finished up the 1954-55 cage season with a four game win streak climaxed by a win over Rossford 56-45. At the sound of the final buzzer the squad triumphantly carried Coach Eisenhower off the floor in tribute of his fine leadership job.

Keeping score in a practice session are Willie Droll, Jim Blaser, and Kenneth Bulkowski. During the regular season Charles Jinks was the scorekeeper, James Smith, the timer, and Tom Abowd did the sportswriting.

"Only those victories are worth having which come as the result of hard fighting."

Heinsman, 13, sinks a layup as Don Lonsway, 3, waits for the rebound in the Marion clash.

North Baltimore's Miklovic, 88, and Baney, 22, look on as Ritter, 9, N.B.'s Pixlely and Kelbley fight for the ball.

Sport

Inspiring the athletes to greater deeds and adding color to the Mohawk games were our cheerleaders for '55.

Kneeling: Ruth Ardner and Nancy Moran. Standing: Joanne Reiter, Jane Lichtle, Sue Jacoby, and Sandra Brown. These girls led the cheering through thick and thin. High praise is in order for a job well done.

Shots . . .

Captain Johnny Heinsman, 13, gets the tip in the second game with St. Paul. Waiting for the ball is Jim Blaser and on the defense is Glenn Ritter, 9.

Doc Kiebel, '28, wears a big grin as he sells ticket to Gerald LaFountain for a Mohawk game. Elmer Foos, Leonard Loeffler and Mr. Kiebel did a fine job selling tickets at all of the Mohawks home games.

Grade School Middies

Sporting a fine record the St. Wendelin Middies completed the season with 10 wins and 2 losses. The up and coming cagers show promise as they combined good playmaking, height, and scoring ability to place second in the Tiffin Deanery League.

Kneeling: Ray Sczesny, Gary Howard, Gene Peluso, Jim Weimerskirch, Jim Arend. Standing: Steffin Wellstein, Al Welly, Joe LaJune, Paul Grine, Bob Brickner.

"We judge ourselves by what we feel capable of doing."

The athletic program completed at St. Wendelin's the past year was as adequate and versatile as can be found in any school of its class.

Along with the regular football and basketball seasons, the program was expanded to boys' intramural basketball and softball. Teams were formed of all classes and did battle after school once a week.

A Senior-Faculty game was also held. In that tilt the "old men" downed the outgoers, 44-43; however, the game was enjoyed by all.

Coaches Kenny Herman and Dick Eisenhower deserve a lot of credit for the job they did with the Saints on the field and in the gym. They worked with the idea of developing fair play, a sense of honesty, and a sound character in today's boys to mold them into tomorrow's men. It is for these reasons that the athletes hold Ike and Herm in high esteem.
